Welcome to Gahanna

There's no place like Gahanna, the Herb Capital of Ohio. Gahanna is the perfect getaway for family fun, a romantic weekend, reunion or simply a memorable visit!

Gahanna is located just minutes from the Port Columbus International Airport, downtown Columbus, Easton Town Center and most central Ohio attractions.

It's so close to everything, yet worlds away. Gahanna offers all of the sights and sounds of nostalgic Americana. Lose yourself on a stroll along the boardwalk of the meandering Big Walnut Creek. Take a trip to yesteryear as you explore the historic landmarks, shops, waterfront eateries and more in the Creekside District. Refresh in the abundant green space in over 750 acres of parkland and trails. Delight in diverse attractions that educate and engage. Gahanna is home to the Ohio Herb Center, Geroux Herb Gardens, as well as a variety of family-oriented and unique festivals and events. Most of all, reconnect...with those you love and enjoy a slower pace and the magic of a warm community where hospitality is a tradition.

Visit Gahanna is your go-to resource for planning your next getaway in Gahanna. Start planning your adventure by visiting our website visitgahanna.com or stop by our Visitor Information Center located at 110 Mill Street, in the Creekside District.

Thank you for your interest. We look forward to welcoming you to Gahanna!

Safe Travels!

Explore the OUTDOORS

Outdoor opportunities abound in Gahanna. Here you'll find endless options for spending time in nature, recreation and leisure.

Big Walnut Bike Trail

This 4.6-mile paved trail connects to many parks and trails in Gahanna.

Creekside Park

Wrapping along Big Walnut Creek, Creekside Park is the centerpiece of Olde Gahanna that features waterfalls, picnic areas, walking paths, fishing and wading. The park includes Creekside Arboretum, a designated Level 1 Arboretum, with 40 labeled species of trees. The Big Walnut Trail winds its way through the park, making an easy connection to some of the city's other parks and bridges over the Big Walnut Creek. Paddleboats and kayaks are available for rental during the warm weather months.

Visit paddlegahanna.com to learn more.

Creekside Park

Woodside Green Park

A playground, canoe launch, softball and baseball fields, basketball court, catch and release pond, rentable shelter house and more are available at the 32-acre Woodside Green Park.

Gahanna Woods State Nature Preserve

You may have heard about Gahanna Woods State Nature Preserve, but did you know it is home to the only known population of cypress-knee sedge in Ohio? The park is also host to countless spring wildflowers, towering trees, buttonbrush swamps and vernal pools. With 99 acres and miles of hiking trails, Gahanna Woods is great for birdwatching and enjoying the tranquility of nature.

Pizzuro Park & Dog Park

Dogs love playing in parks just as much as their human companions. For families with furry friends, Pizzuro Park's dog park is the place to be. Inside four fenced-in acres of space for off-leash romping, the park includes a smaller area for pups under 25 pounds, an area for large dogs, plus an agility course for dogs of all sizes.

Shull Park

The adrenaline seeking adventurers and athletes know Shull Park is the place to be. Open from sunrise to sundown, there's no lack of things to do: from soccer fields to the in-line hockey rink, and acres of fields to "The B.A.S.E." skate park stacked with obstacles, there's an activity for everyone.

Sunpoint Park

Stop by Sunpoint Park for an afternoon every child can enjoy. This accessible playground is designed for all ages and abilities and includes shady seating areas, basketball courts and restroom facilities.

Academy Park

Academy Park brings home the gold for largest park in Gahanna. With more than 100 acres, creek fishing and miles of nature trails, this location offers experiences for everyone. The playground is great for kids of all ages, and multiple baseball diamonds and basketball courts make it a favorite for teens and sports teams.

Hannah Park

The stunning scenery of Hannah Park along with the large, reservable barn-inspired shelter house overlooking a small pond, makes it a go-to spot for gatherings like family reunions, school dance photo shoots, sports events and more. It's easy to get active at the park, too, with tennis and basketball courts, a playground and walking trails available.

The HERB CAPITAL Experience

The Herb Capital of Ohio celebrates its namesake throughout the year with special events and resources.

In 1972, the Ohio General Assembly passed a resolution to make Gahanna the “Herb Capital of Ohio.” The effort to define Gahanna as such was spearheaded by a prominent historical society member and avid gardener, Jane “Bunny” Geroux.

Gahanna embraced the declaration with the creation of the Herb Education Center, now known as the Ohio Herb Center, soon after.

Ohio Herb Center

Located in the heart of Gahanna, Ohio—just minutes from the hustle and bustle of downtown Columbus, the Ohio Herb Center celebrates all-things-herbal year-round and offers an experience in the world of herbs. Its mission is to offer a space where people can learn to incorporate herbs into their daily lives to enhance well-being.

The Ohio Herb Center showcases the city’s status as the Herb Capital of Ohio, with classes, hands-on workshops, and a gift shop filled with herb-inspired treasures including teas, bath and grooming products, books, dried herbs and more.

The Ohio Herb Center is located in the historic Nafzger-Miller house, which is listed the National Register of Historic Places and dates back to 1855. The center is also available to rent for small meetings, baby or wedding showers, or group events.

The Herb Center offers classes and workshops on a variety of subjects such as Tea Blending, Herbal Crafts and Landscaping with Herbs.

Visit ohioherbcenter.org to learn more about classes, to schedule a group workshop, or to inquire about a rental space.

Herbal Cocktail Trail

Come one, come all but, most importantly, come thirsty. The Herbal Cocktail Trail takes visitors on a journey through a selection of Gahanna’s signature restaurants, breweries, distilleries and pubs to enjoy signature herb-infused cocktails that live up to the city's Herb Capital title.

For the next girl's night out, date night or post-work happy hour, pick a spot along the trail for a unique Gahanna experience.

Passports to mark your progress along the Herbal Cocktail Trail may be picked up at any of the participating locations or downloaded at visitgahanna.com. Whether your goal is to get all the stamps or simply enjoy the flavors of the Herb Capital of Ohio, your experience will be unforgettable.

And to make sure it's truly unforgettable, participants who complete the Herbal Cocktail Trail can turn their completed passport in for a one-of-a-kind Herbal Cocktail Trail branded gift.

Most of all, the Herbal Cocktail Trail is about making memories with friends and family in a way that Gahanna can uniquely offer.

For more information, go to visitgahanna.com/herbal-cocktail-trail.

Herb'n Restaurant Week

Herb'n Restaurant Week brings the fresh flavors of the Herbal Cocktail Trail to a whole new level with herb-inspired and infused meals made by Gahanna's signature restaurants.

Traditionally held the second week of May, also known as Herb Week in Gahanna, Herb'n Restaurant Week celebrates Gahanna's heritage as Herb Capital of Ohio.

Sage, rosemary, thyme and other herbs serve as inspiration for the unique, creative and, of course, delicious dishes that grace the menus of participating restaurants. Local chefs answer the call to incorporate herbal flavors into dishes, not limited to just dinner. Beverages, desserts, breakfast, lunch and dinner are all fair game for herb-inspired concoctions.

Learn more at visitgahanna.com.

The Culinary Experience

Gahanna's food scene has a lot to offer for all types of tastes.

Whether it's hamburgers from Gahanna Grill, Philly cheesesteaks from Marlow's Cheesesteaks, sushi from TORA or tacos al pastor from Los Guachos Taqueria, the options are extensive.

Looking for a caffeine fix? Head to Upper Cup Coffee. They roast their quality beans in-house and also offer fresh donuts, "cro-nuts" (a cross between a croissant and a donut), and hot sandwiches.

Nativo 614 combines Latin American and Mediterranean cuisine in a warm and welcoming atmosphere. The Barn at Rocky Fork Creek is an upscale casual steakhouse featuring an on-site butcher shop, smokehouse, and bakery, handcrafting flavorful steaks, seafood, ribs and chicken, and spectacular desserts. Antolino's Pizza is a family-owned-and-operated pizza shop that has been proudly serving award-winning pizza, subs, and Italian food for more than 40 years. Antolino's Pizza is also on Experience Columbus' Columbus-Style Pizza Trail. Signatures Mill Stone Tavern is a long-time Gahanna favorite that offers traditional favorites including pizza, chicken wings, salads, subs and its well-known pasta chips.

Visit Gahanna can help you when choosing the perfect place for a dinner reservation with a group. Whether you're looking for an allergy-friendly establishment, a fun bar for a night out, or high-end dining for a fancy event, Visit Gahanna can provide a list of local eateries with recommendations toward meeting you and your group's needs.

Creekside Blues & Jazz Festival

Every year, central Ohio flocks to Gahanna for the highly anticipated Creekside Blues & Jazz Festival®.

The Creekside Blues & Jazz Festival® brings together the best parts of Gahanna – food, cocktails, brews, jazz, and blues – for residents and visitors to enjoy as part of the three-day cultural celebration. Gahanna's largest signature event invites the best blues and jazz performers and a sampling of other genres by some of the best local and regional performers to grace its stages and delight the crowds with their live music.

Located on the streets of the breathtaking Creekside District of Gahanna, the Creekside Blues & Jazz Festival® fills the heart of the city, incorporating local shops and eateries on the grounds for good eats and great memorabilia in addition to the food and drinks tents between stages.

Festivalgoers can take full advantage of the festival, by visiting all 4 stages of music and performances, enjoying kid-friendly activities, eating delicious food and beverages from local businesses and food trucks, browsing local vendors, and exploring nature while walking through Creekside Park and Arboretum that adjoins the festival grounds.

The Creekside Blues & Jazz Festival® is set for June 16-18, 2023. Purchase tickets online or check out the line-up of musicians on creeksidebluesandjazz.com.

Whether you're staying at our local hotels or driving in from the Columbus and surrounding areas, there are plenty of places to explore in Gahanna for the weekend.

With views of Big Walnut Creek, the Creekside District includes both shopping and green space enjoyed by community members year-round.

For an extended list of things to do, go to visitgahanna.com.
